13.

4. ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL - No building, outbuilding or other structure shall be erected, placed or altered on a any lot until construction plans and specifications and a complete plot plan, showing the nature, kind, shape, height, materials and location of the same have been approved in writing by the Architectural Committee, as to the quality and type of material, workmanship, and harmony of external design and location with existing structures and with respect to the topography and finished grade elevations. The ground floor or the main structure exclusive of open porches and garages shall not be less than 1600 square feet for houses of one story and at least 1,000 square feet on the first floor of houses of more than one story. Determination of sufficiency and adequacy of the term "ground" floor of main structure with respect to dwellings of tri-level, bi-level and one and one-half story design shall rest exclusively with the Architectural Committee.

16.

- 5. ARCHITECTURAL COMMITTEE - The Architectural Committee shall be composed of William P. Jennings and Chris Barnes or a representative or representatives designated by them in writing. In the event of a death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member or members shall have authority to perform the duties of the Architectural Committee and to designate a representative of like authority. If the Committee shall fail to act upon any plans submitted to it for its approval within a period of 21 days from the submission date of the same, then the owner may proceed with the building according to the plans submitted, which plans however, shall not be contrary to any provisions, covenants, conditions and restrictions named in this instrument and the failure of such committee to act within 21 days shall not be deemed and approval on the plans so submitted. Compliance with these covenants in no way relieves the property owner of compliance with all ordinances and zoning regulations of the Town of Zionsville and the Zionsville Plan Commission.
- 6. GENERAL PROVISIONS - These "Covenants and Restrictions" are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them, until January 1, 2000, at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years unless changed by a vote of the majority of the then owners of the building sites covered by these covenants in whole or in part. Right of enforcement of these covenants is hereby granted to the owners of the lots in this subdivision, their heirs or assigns, or to the Zionsville Plan Commission, its successors or assigns.
