FOR RIVER POINT CONDOMINIUMS

ARTICLE 1 - PLAN OF UNIT OWNERSHIP

Section 1.1 Unit Ownership.

A. This said Condominium, located in the City of Newberg, County of Yamhill, State of Oregon, known as RIVER POINT CONDOMINIUMS, is submitted to the provisions of ORS 100.005 et seq., the Oregon Condominium Act (the term "Condominium" as used herein shall include the real property and all improvements constructed thereon).

Section 1.2 Applicability of Bylaws.

A. The provisions of these bylaws are applicable to the Condominium, the association of unit owners (herein known as the "Association"), and the entire management structure thereof.

Section 1.3 Personal Application.

A. All present or future unit owners, tenants, future tenants, or their employees, or any other person that might use the facilities of the condominium in any manner, are subject to the provisions of these bylaws. The acquisition, occupancy, or rental of any of the units of the Condominium, or the mere act of occupancy of any such units will constitute acceptance and ratification of these Bylaws and agreement to comply with all the provisions hereof.

Section 1.4 Definitions.

A. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms used in these Bylaws shall have the same meanings and definitions as set forth in the Oregon Condominium Act, ORS 100.005 et seq., as supplemented by the Declaration, and the statute and definitions are incorporated herein to these Bylaws by this reference.

ARTICLE 2 - ASSOCIATION, MEMBERSHIP, VOTING, MAJORITY OF OWNERS, QUORUM, AND PROXIES

Section 2.1 Membership in the Association.

A. Membership in the Association is limited to unit owners associated with the said Condominium. Upon the recording of a conveyance or contract to convey a unit, the grantee or purchaser set forth in the conveyance or contract shall automatically become a member of the Association, and shall remain a member of the Association until that said person's ownership ceases for any reason. For all purposes of the condominium declaration (herein known as "Declaration"), and the administration of the property, unit ownership shall be determined, from the records maintained by the Association. The record of ownership shall be established by the unit owner filing with the Association a copy of the deed to or land sale contract for his or her unit, and the unit owner shall affix thereto the certificate of the recording officer of the County of Yamhill, Oregon, showing the date and place of recording of such deed or contract. No person shall be recognized as a unit owner unless a copy of the deed or contract has been filed with the Association as provided above showing him to be the current owner or contract purchaser of a unit. Notwithstanding the above, the Declarant shall be the owner of all previously unsold units, although no deed or land sale contract with respect to such units has been filed with the Association.

Section 2.2 Voting.

A. Each unit shall be entitled to one vote per unit. If there are co-owners of a particular unit, that unit shall have only one vote, unless a valid court order establishes the authority of a co-owner to vote. The calling, scheduling, and conducting of all meetings of the Association and the exercise of voting rights shall be controlled by Articles 2 and 3 of these said Bylaws.

Section 2.3 Majority of Owners.

A. As set forth in these Bylaws, the term "majority of owners" is defined as those owners holding over fifty percent (50%) of the voting rights allocated to the unit owners in accordance with the Declaration and Section 2.2 as set forth above. The term "majority of owners present" shall be defined as those owners who hold over fifty percent (50%) of the votes that are present at any legal meeting.

Section 2.4 Quorum.

A. A quorum is defined as a majority of the outstanding unit owners entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Association. If less than a majority of the outstanding unit owners are represented at a meeting, a majority of the unit owners so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 2.5 Proxies and Ballots.

A. At all meetings of unit owners, a unit owner may vote by proxy executed in writing by the unit owner or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. Such proxy shall be filed with the secretary of the Association before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

Section 2.6 Authority to Vote.

A. All unit owners shall be entitled to vote, including those who have leased their premises to a third party. A unit owner's right to vote may not be revoked. A purchaser under a contract for sale shall be deemed the owner of the said unit, unless otherwise set forth in the said contract for sale.

Section 2.7 Fiduciaries and Joint Owners.

A. A unit owner who is an executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee may vote, in person, by proxy, or ballot, at any meeting of the Association with respect to any unit owned or held by him in such capacity, whether or not the same shall have been transferred to his name; provided that he or she shall satisfy the secretary that he or she is the executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee, holding such unit in such capacity. Whenever any unit is owned by two or more persons jointly according to the records of the Association, the vote of the unit may be exercised by any one of the owners then present, in the absence of protest or objection by a co-owner. In the event of such protest or objection by a said co-owner, no one co-owner shall be entitled to vote without the approval of all the said co-owners. In the event of disagreement among the co-owners, the vote of the unit shall be disregarded completely in determining the proportion of votes given with respect to such matter, as that said unit is not entitled to any vote.

Section 2.8 Actions by Association and Legal Meetings.

A. Except as otherwise set forth in the Declaration, these Bylaws or the Oregon Condominium Act, decisions and resolutions of the Association shall require approval by a majority of owners present at any legal meeting, as a legal meeting is defined as duly called pursuant to these Bylaws where a quorum is present in person, by proxy, or by ballot at a ballot meeting.

ARTICLE 6 - OBLIGATIONS OF THE OWNERS

Section 6.1 Assessments.

A. All unit owners are required to pay annual assessments imposed by the Association to meet all the Condominium's Common Expenses, which shall include premiums for insurance required or permitted under Article 8 as set forth herein. In the discretion of the Board of Directors, the annual assessment may be made payable, semiannually, quarterly, or monthly. The annual assessment shall commence at the time of the first conveyance by Declarant to a unit owner. Prior to such conveyance, Declarant is required to pay all operating expenses of the Condominium. All of the reserve accounts created pursuant to these Bylaws shall be funded by allocation and payment from the monthly assessment of unit owners. The assessment of all unit owners who may be benefited by expenditure of reserve funds may be increased as necessary, so the reserve fund in question can be maintained in an amount sufficient to meet the needs for which such fund was established. The Declarant shall pay assessments due for operating expenses on all unsold units from the date of the conveyance of the first unit in the condominium.

1. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these Bylaws, each unit will be liable for the common expense in equal shares;

2. The annual assessment of units shall include the following items, which shall be defined as Common Expenses:

Expense items
a). Administrative expenses;
b). Maintenance, repair or replacement of the common elements expenses;
c). Any deficit (shortage) in common expenses for any prior period;
d). Utilities for the Common Elements and other utilities with a common meter or commonly billed, such as water and sewer;
e). At the discretion of the Board of Directors, the expense of basic cable television service to all units, together with maintenance and repair expenses for such system and service;
f). Cost of insurance or bonds obtained in accordance with these Bylaws;
g). Professional management cost if authorized by the Board of Directors;
h). Legal, accounting, and other professional expenses;
i). Any other items properly chargeable as an expense of the Association.
Reserve items:
a). Any reserve account for the purpose of effectuating replacements of structural elements, mechanical equipment, and other common elements of the condominium which will normally require replacement in more than three (3) years and less than thirty (30) years. Payment into this account shall be deemed a contribution to capital improvement (not an expense item) as and when made. Pursuant to provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act, Declarant has established a reserve account for replacement of such Common Elements such as this. The reserve accounts for replacement shall be funded by assessment against the same units that are assessed for the maintenance of the items for which the reserve account is established. Accordingly, the reserve account for replacement of those General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements, the maintenance of which is provided by assessment against all owners, is created by assessment against all owners. The reserve account for replacement of those Limited Common Elements, the maintenance of which is provided by assessment of less than all units shall be created by assessment only against the specific units responsible for the maintenance of such Limited Common Elements.

The Board of Directors is required to prepare a schedule of the Common Elements having a remaining useful life of more than three (3) and less than thirty (30) years, together with the current replacement cost of such Common Elements. The amount of the periodic payments to the reserve account shall be adjusted at regular intervals to recognize changes in remaining useful lives and replacement costs over time. Except as set forth in the Oregon Condominium Act, the reserve account shall be used only for replacement of Common Elements and shall be kept separate from accounts for maintenance.

b). Other special reserve funds as may be set up by the Board of Directors via special assessments of the unit owners who benefit thereby as may be required by the Declaration or otherwise determined by the Association of unit owners to be appropriate, including a reserve fund for any lease payments.

c). Each said reserve account shall be kept in an account in the name of the Association with a safe, responsible, and reputable bank or savings and loan association located in the State of Oregon and shall be accounted for separately. Assessments paid into the reserve accounts are the property of the Association and are not refundable to sellers of units; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent sellers of units from treating their outstanding allocable share of reserve accounts as a separate or reimbursable item in a sales agreement (i.e. a pro-rate to be handled between the seller and the purchaser of a specific unit). No unit owner shall have any individual rights in any of these reserves, although it is understood that the value of their respective units may increase in proportion to each unit's right to receive repair, maintenance, and replacement therefrom.

Payment of Amounts Due

a). At a minimum of once per month, all bills that have amounts owing shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval for payment, with the Board of Directors designating the specific person(s) who shall pay all amounts that are owing.

Section 6.2 Initial Assessment.

A. The amount of the initial assessment to unit owners other than Declarant shall be determined by Declarant. Thereafter, the assessment shall be subject to review by the Board of Directors. Except as set forth herein, the assessment for all units shall be payable from the date the Declaration is recorded.

Section 6.3 Special Assessments.

A. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to assess special assessments against an owner or all owners in the following manner for the following purposes:

1). To pay for a deficit in the operating budget by vote of a majority of the Board;
2). To collect amounts due to the Association from an owner for breach of the owner's obligations under the declaration, these Bylaws, or the Association's rules and regulations, by vote of a majority of the Board;
3). To make repairs or renovations to the common elements if sufficient refunds are not available from the operating budget or replacement reserve accounts (by a vote of the majority of the Board of Directors);
4). To make capital acquisitions, additions, or improvements, by vote of at least 75 percent of all votes allocated to units in the condominium.

Section 6.4 Declarant's Obligation for Assessments.

A. From the date the Declaration and plat is recorded, Declarant shall be required to:

1). Pay assessments due for operating expenses on all unsold units;
2). Pay assessments due for reserves on all unsold units, or, at Declarant's option, pay or require the unit owner to pay all accrued reserve assessments against the unit at the time of the initial sale to the unit owner.
Section 6.5  Budget, Income Tax Returns, Determination of Fiscal Year.

A.  The fiscal year of the association shall be a calendar year unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors.

B.  The Board of Directors is responsible for insuring that all required income tax returns to be filed by the Association are promptly filed.

C.  Not less than sixty (60) days before the beginning of each fiscal year, the Board of Directors shall adopt a budget for the Association containing an estimate of the total amount considered necessary to pay the cost of maintenance, management, operation, repair, and replacement of the Common Elements and those parts of the units as to which it is the responsibility of the Association to maintain, repair, and replace, and the cost of wages, materials, insurance premiums, services, supplies, and other expenses that may be declared to be Common Expenses by the Oregon Condominium Act, the condominium Bylaws and Declaration, or a resolution of the Association and which will be required during the ensuing fiscal year for the administration, operation, maintenance, and repair of the condominium and the rendering to the unit owners of all related services.

1).  This said budget shall also include such reasonable amounts as the Board of Directors considers necessary to provide working capital and such general operating reserve accounts, contingency, and other reserve accounts as the Board shall determine. The amounts designated for replacement reserves shall be adjusted annually to reflect current replacement cost and remaining useful life of the said items. Not less than thirty (30) days before the beginning of each fiscal year, the Board of Directors shall forward to each unit owner a copy of the budget in a reasonably itemized and readable form that sets forth the amount of the common expenses and any special assessment payable by each unit owner. This said budget shall constitute the basis for determining each unit owner's assessment for the Common Expenses of the Condominium.

D.  The failure of the Board of Directors to timely prepare and/or to present a budget to the unit owners shall not be cause or a valid reason for any owner to fail or refuse to pay assessments. In such case, the assessments shall continue, based on the last adopted or accepted budget, until a new budget is created and announced. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to make retroactive increases in assessments to make up for any deficiency.

E.  If the Board of Directors fails to timely adopt a budget for a new fiscal year, the number of unit owners holding a majority of the votes of the entire Association, at any general or specially called meeting, may adopt such a budget, announce it to the unit owners, and immediately commence assessments based on the newly adopted budget. Additionally, at any general or specially called meeting, the number of unit owners holding a majority of the votes of the entire Association may amend any budget adopted by the Board of Directors. Thereafter, assessments to unit owners shall be based on the budget as so amended until a new budget is adopted in accordance with these said Bylaws.

Section 6.6  Default by a unit owner.

A. Failure by a unit owner to pay any assessment of the Association shall be a default by such owner of his or her obligations pursuant to these Bylaws and the Oregon Condominium Act. Notwithstanding the other remedies of the Association provided in the Declaration, this said default by the unit owner shall entitle the Association to declare the balance of such owner's annual assessment otherwise being paid in installments to be immediately due and payable in full. Interest shall be charged on delinquent assessments at a rate as may be set by the Board of Directors, not to exceed the highest rate permitted by applicable law. Prior to the change in any interest rate charged on delinquent assessments, the Board of Directors shall give thirty (30) days written notice to all owners.

1). The Association shall provide, within 10 business days of receipt of a written request from an owner, a written statement that provides the amount of assessments due from the owner and unpaid at the time the request was received, including regular and special assessments; fines and other charges; accrued interest; and late payment charges. This written statement shall also include the percentage rate at which interest accrues on assessments that are not paid when due and the percentage rate used to calculate the charges for late payment or the amount of a fixed charge for late payment.

a). The Association shall not be required to comply with Section 6.6 (A) 1) requiring a written statement within 10 days if the association has commenced litigation by filing a complaint against the owner for unpaid amounts due and the litigation is pending when the statement would be otherwise due.

2). The Association shall also be entitled to a lien that may be enforced on compliance with the provisions of ORS 100.450. In any foreclosure suit by the Association with respect to the lien, the Association shall be entitled to collect reasonable rent from the defaulting owner for the use of his or her unit or shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver pursuant to ORS 100.460. Liability for all assessments, charges, interest, fees (including attorney fees and other cost advancements), and other sums owing by the unit owner pursuant to the declaration, these bylaws, the Oregon Condominium Act, and rules and regulations of the Association shall be the personal obligation of the unit owner and may be enforced by suit for a money judgment, in addition to all other remedies of the Association.

Section 6.7  Maintenance and Repair.

A. Every unit owner is required to promptly all maintenance and repair work within his or her own unit, which if not repaired would affect the Common Elements of the Condominium or a part thereof belonging to other owners. Each unit owner shall be responsible for the damages and liabilities that his or her failure to do so may cause.

B. The unit owner at his sole expense shall be responsible for all repairs of internal and external installations of each unit, such as water, lights, gas, power, sewage, telephones, air conditioners and sanitary installations, doors, windows, lamps, and all other accessories belonging to the unit area.

C. Each unit owner shall reimburse the Association for any expenditures incurred in repairing or replacing any Common Elements and/or facility damaged through his or her fault, not otherwise covered by insurance policies carried by the owner or the Association for the owner's and Association's benefit. In such circumstances, the insurance obtained by the owners shall be deemed the primary coverage and the insurance obtained by the Association shall be deemed the secondary coverage.

Section 6.8  Right of Entry: Encroachments and Easements for Maintenance.

A. In case of an emergency originating in or threatening a unit, the owner shall grant the right of entry to the management agent or to any other person authorized by the Board of Directors or the Association, whether or not the owner is present at the time.

B. An easement is reserved to the Association in and through any unit and the Common Elements providing access at reasonable times and with reasonable notice for purposes of maintenance, repair, and replacement of the Common Elements. If in the process of such repair and maintenance by the Association, it is necessary to alter or damage any unit or Common Elements, such alterations or damages will be permitted without compensation, provided the unit and/or Common Elements are promptly restored to substantially their prior condition by the Association.

C. If any portion of the Common Elements encroaches on a unit, or a unit encroaches on any portion of the Common Elements, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of the same, as long as it stands, shall exist. If the structures are partially or totally destroyed and then rebuilt, the owners of the units agree that minor encroachment of parts of the Common Elements due to such rebuilding shall be allowed and an easement shall exist for such purpose.

If the litigation or administrative action is stayed under this paragraph, both parties shall participate in the dispute resolution process.

D. Unless a stay has been granted under paragraph (c) of this subsection, if the dispute resolution process is not completed within thirty (30) days after receipt of the initial offer, the initiating party may commence litigation or an administrative proceeding without regard to whether the dispute resolution is completed.

The said Bylaws may be amended from time to time as provided therein.
SECTION 14. COMPLIANCE WITH BYLAWS AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS.

Each unit owner shall comply with the Bylaws and with the administrative rules and regulations adopted thereto, and with the covenants, conditions, and restrictions in this Declaration and in the deed to his unit. Failure by a unit owner to comply therewith shall be grounds for an action maintainable by the Association or by an aggrieved unit owner, in addition to other sanctions which may be provided by the Bylaws or by the administrative rules and regulations. A unit owner shall also have similar rights of action against the Association.

SECTION 15. PERSON TO RECEIVE SERVICE OF PROCESS IN CERTAIN CASES.

The designated agent to receive service of process in cases provided in ORS 100.550(1), is named in the Condominium Information Report which will be filed with the Oregon Real Estate Agency pursuant to ORS 100.260.

SECTION 16. EASEMENTS AND OTHER INTERESTS.

Pursuant to ORS 100.405 (5), the Association has the authority to execute, acknowledge, deliver, and record on behalf of the unit owners leases, permits, easements, rights-of-way, licenses, and other similar interests affecting the General and Limited Common Elements for utilities, roads, and other purposes reasonably necessary or useful for the maintenance or operation of the Condominium. The granting of any interest under this said Section shall be first approved by at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the unit owners. The instrument granting an interest pursuant to this said section shall be executed and acknowledged by both the Chairman and Secretary, and shall state that such granting was approved by at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the unit owners.

SECTION 17. RECEIPTS AND EXPENSES.

All income and profits derived from the General Common Elements shall be distributed among and all Common Expenses shall be charged to the unit owners equally as to each unit owner. No unit owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution toward the Common Expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his unit.

A working capital fund shall be established for the initial months of the Condominium operation equal to Declarant's estimate of two months' monthly Association regular assessments. Each unit's share of the working capital fund shall be non-refundable, and shall be collected and transferred to the Association at the time of closing of the initial sale of each unit and maintained in a segregated account for the use and benefit of the Association. The purpose of the fund is to ensure that the Association shall have cash available to meet unforeseen expenditures or to acquire additional equipment or services deemed necessary or desirable by the Board of Directors. Amounts paid into the working capital fund shall not be considered as advance payments of regular assessments. Declarant shall not use the working capital funds to defray any of its expenses, reserve contributions or construction costs, or to make up any budget deficits.
while it is in control of the Association.

SECTION 18. LIEN OF ASSOCIATION AGAINST UNIT.

The Board of Directors shall have the authority and the duty to levy and enforce the collection of general and special assessments for Common Expenses. Whenever the Association levies any assessment for Common Expenses against a unit, the Association, upon complying with this section, shall have a lien upon the individual unit and the undivided interest in the Common Elements appertaining to such unit for the reasonable value of such Common Expenses allocable to such unit and for any unpaid assessments and interest as provided in ORS 100.450, plus costs and reasonable attorney fees, and the lien shall be prior to all other liens or encumbrances upon the unit, except for:

A. Tax and public improvement assessments liens and a prior mortgage or trust deed of record, subject to ORS 100.450(7).

Each assessment shall be a separate and personal debt and obligation of the unit owner against whom the same is assessed at the time the assessment fell due and shall be collectible as such. Such personal obligation shall not pass to successors in title unless assumed by them or required by law. The Association shall cause to be recorded in Yamhill County, Oregon, a notice of lien claim pursuant to ORS 100.450 with respect to any assessment which has not been paid within thirty (30) days from the mailing of the notice of assessment. The notice of lien claim shall be filed within ten (10) days following the expiration of such 30-day period. The Association shall be entitled to recover, in any suit to foreclose or action to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Expenses, interest on the delinquent assessment at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum and costs, including reasonable attorney fees in such suit or action or any appeal therefrom.

A lien for Common Expense assessments shall not be affected by any sale or transfer of a unit, except that a sale or transfer pursuant to a foreclosure of a first mortgage or trust deed or a deed in lieu of foreclosure to the extent permitted by ORS 100.465 shall extinguish and foreclose a subordinate lien for assessments which become payable prior to such sale or transfer. Any such delinquent assessments which were extinguished pursuant to the foregoing provision may be reallocated and assessed to all units as a Common Expense. Any such sale or transfer pursuant to a foreclosure shall not relieve the purchaser or transferee of a unit from liability for, nor the unit from the lien of, an assessment made thereafter.

In case of foreclosure, the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the unit, and the plaintiff in the foreclosure suit shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rental, without regard to the value of the security. An action to recover a money judgment, together with reasonable attorney fees for unpaid Common Expenses, may be maintained without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the claim for common proceeds.

SECTION 19. POWER OF CONDOMINIUM MANAGER TO BID AT FORECLOSURE SALE.

In any suit to foreclose a lien of the Association against a unit, the Board of Directors or the manager, acting on behalf of the unit owners, shall have power to bid on the unit at the foreclosure sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, and convey the same. The Board of Directors or the Manager, acting on behalf of the unit owners, is prohibited from bidding on or otherwise acquiring a unit in any other foreclosure suit.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit an individual unit owner or owners from bidding on or otherwise acquitting a unit in any other foreclosure suit.

SECTION 20. INSURANCE.

The Association, by and through the Board of Directors, shall obtain and keep in effect at all times insurance coverage as specified in the Bylaws. The Board of Directors shall not be responsible for procuring fire and extended coverage insurance covering the furniture, fixtures, equipment or contents located in the individual units. If any building within the Condominium is damaged or destroyed, the Board of Directors shall immediately proceed to rebuild and restore the building so damaged or destroyed in accordance with the Bylaws.

SECTION 22. EASEMENTS FOR ENCROACHMENT.

If any part of the Common Elements now or hereafter encroaches upon any unit, or if any unit now or hereafter encroaches upon any other unit or upon any portion of the Common Elements, an easement for such encroachment and the maintenance thereof, as long as it continues, shall exist. In the event a unit or a building containing units shall be partially or totally destroyed and then rebuilt, minor encroachments of any parts of the Common Elements upon any unit, any unit upon any other unit, or upon any portion of the common elements due to the construction, shall be permitted as set forth in ORS 100.520, and easements for such encroachments and the maintenance thereof shall exist.

SECTION 23. MORTGAGEE PROTECTION.

The liens created hereunder upon any unit shall be subject to and subordinate to, and shall not affect the rights of or the holder of the indebtedness secured by any recorded first mortgage or deed of trust (defined as a mortgage with first priority over other mortgages) upon such interest made in good faith and for value. After repossession or the foreclosure of any such mortgage, there may be a lien created pursuant to Section 19 hereof on the interest of the owner of the unit or of the purchaser at such foreclosure sale to secure all assessments, whether regular or special, assessed hereunder after the date of such repossession or foreclosure sale, which lien, if any is claimed, shall have the same effect and be enforced in the same manner as provided herein.

The holder, insurer or guarantor of the mortgage on any unit shall have the right to timely written notice of: (1) any condemnation or casualty loss that affects either a material portion of the Condominium or the unit securing its mortgage; (2) any 60-day delinquency in the payment of assessments or charges owed by the owner of any unit on which it holds the mortgage; (3) a lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy maintained by the Association; and (4) any proposed action that requires the consent of a specified percentage of eligible mortgage holders.

The mortgage holder, insurer, or guarantor must send a written request for this information to the Association, stating both its name and address and the unit number or address of the unit on which it has (or insures or guarantees) the mortgage in order to obtain the foregoing information.

No amendment to this section shall affect the rights of or the holder of any such mortgage recorded prior to recordation of such amendment who does not join in the execution thereof.

SECTION 24. LIMITS ON USE OF UNITS AND COMMON ELEMENTS.

The units shall only be used for residential purposes and related uses. Any lease or rental agreement with respect to a unit must be in writing and be subject to the requirements of this Declaration and the Association. Nothing shall be done, kept, or stored in any unit or in the Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance on the Condominium without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors. No unit owner shall permit anything to be done, kept, or stored in his unit or in the Common Elements which will result in the cancellation of the insurance on any part of the Condominium. The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt rules and regulations for use of the Common Elements, and there shall be no violation of such rules. No automobile maintenance or repair shall be permitted on the Common Elements.

SECTION 25. AMENDMENT.

Except as otherwise provided in the Oregon Condominium Act, no amendment may change the allocation of undivided interest in the Common Elements, the method of determining liability for Common Expenses, the right to common profits or the voting rights of any unit as expressed in this Declaration, unless such amendment has been approved by the owners of the affected units, and such unit owners shall record an amendment to this Declaration setting forth the altered allocation of each unit owner having an interest and, if required by law, the amendment is approved by the Real Estate Commissioner pursuant to ORS 100.135.

Except as provided herein or in ORS 100.105, this Declaration may be amended consistent with the provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act by the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting rights at the annual meeting of the Association, or at any special meeting called for such purpose, or by written proxy or written consent of seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting rights. Such amendment shall be effective upon the recordation of an instrument executed and acknowledged by the Chairman and Secretary of the Association with the Yamhill County Recording Officer, setting forth such amendment in full and the amendment is approved by the Real Estate Commission pursuant to ORS 100.135.
