ARTICLE VI
ZERO LOT LINE RESIDENTIAL LOTS

6.1 Residential lots nos. 39-58, inclusive, in Carrietowne East Plats Two and Three have been planned and are being developed and improved as a zero lot line development. Accordingly, these residential lots will be made subject to certain rights and restrictions (relating to grass mowing, landscape maintenance, snow removal, private roadway maintenance and general maintenance, repair and upkeep of common areas) set forth hereinafter.

6.2 Unless the owners of adjoining residential lots otherwise agree, the general rules of law regarding party walls and liability for property damage due to negligence or willful acts or omissions shall apply to each party wall or party fence which is built or maintained at any time pursuant to plans and specifications approved by the Architectural Control Committee. In the event that any portion of any structure, including any foundation, footer, overhang, fire wall, party wall, decorative wall or fence, which has been constructed on or along a residential lot line in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the Architectural Control Committee shall protrude not more than six inches onto or over an adjoining residential lot, such protrusion shall not be deemed to be an encroachment upon the adjoining residential lot, but the rights and obligations of the adjoining residential lot owner with respect thereto shall be governed by this Section 6.2 and no residential lot owner shall maintain any action or the removal of such protrusion. In such event, there shall be deemed to be a perpetual easement in favor of the encroaching party, so long as such use shall be maintained, for (a) continuing maintenance and use of such protrusion, including the right to extend, enlarge, remodel and reconstruct the same, and (b) lateral support of such protrusion by the subsurface and minerals in and under the servient parcel; provided, however, that the foregoing easement shall not be construed to prevent the owner of any residential lot from making excavations on such owner’s lot for construction, reconstruction, enlargement, maintenance or repair of such owner’s dwelling so long as such owner shall protect the rights granted the adjoining residential lot owner hereunder in making such excavations. The foregoing shall also apply to any replacements of the original structure, party wall, decorative wall or fence, and the foregoing rights, once established, shall not be subject to amendment or change by way of amendment of this Declaration. This Section 6.2 shall apply only to party walls and party fences which have been properly located under plans and specifications approved by the Architectural Control Committee and shall not be deemed to validate or to waive the right of any residential lot owner to require the removal of any encroachment which has not been so approved by the Architectural Control Committee.

6.3 The cost of reasonable repair and maintenance of a party wall or party fence shall be equally shared by the residential lot owners who make use of the wall or fence in proportion to such use.

6.4 If a party wall or party fence is destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty, any residential lot owner who has used the wall or fence may restore it, and if the adjoining residential lot owner thereafter makes use of the wall or fence, said adjoining owner shall contribute to the cost of restoration thereof in proportion to such use without prejudice to the right of the residential lot owner who restores the wall or fence to call for a larger contribution from the other owner under any rule of law regarding liability for negligent or willful acts or omissions. Such right of any residential lot owner to contribution from any other residential lot owner shall be appurtenant to the land and shall pass to such residential lot owner’s successors in title.

6.5 In establishing the easements for an location of utility lines as described in Article V hereof, the Developer may determine it to be in ethical benefit to and in the best interest of the Property to locate such utility lines and the surface improvements serving such lines (such as electrical transformers and meters) in the area between pairs of residential lots to minimize the number of such installations which will be visible at the Property. In such event, the utility lines serving one residential lot in a pair of lots may extend over the adjacent residential lot and/or through the dwelling located on such adjacent residential lot. Where such situation should occur, there is hereby created an easement for such lines over the servient residential lot and, to the extent necessary, through any dwelling located thereon for the benefit of the benefited lot and the dwelling located thereon with right of access, upon reasonable notice, to maintain, replace and repair such lines at the sole cost of the benefited residential lot and in such manner as will cause the least disturbance to the servient lot.

6.6 Developer shall establish a master plan for landscaping of Carrietowne East Plats One, Two and Three which master plan shall take priority over individual landscaping plans with individual fences or hedges being allowed only with the written approval pursuant to Article II.

ARTICLE VII

7.2 The Developer, its successors and assigns, shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to convey fee simple title to Lots A, B, C and D to the Association, and in such instance, the Association shall be required to accept delivery of a quit-claim deed for such purpose; provided, however, that the Association shall not be required to accept title until such time as 50% of the residential lots are owned of record by persons or entities other than the Developer.

7.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.2 and any designation of Lots A, B, C & D on Carrietowne East Plats One, Two or Three or any plat of the Adjacent Property or the Additional Property, neither the Association nor any owner of any residential lot shall have any ownership interest in or any right to control the use or development of any such Common Area unless and until the Developer shall convey such Common Area to or for the benefit of the Association. Thereafter, the owners of the residential lots at the Property shall have only those rights with respect to Lots A, B, C and D as are granted them hereunder and under the Articles and Code of Regulations, if any, of the Association.
