ARTICLE I

3. The word "dwelling" as used in this Declaration of Restrictions is intended to mean a building designed and intended for use as a residence for human occupancy.

4. The word "plot" as used in this Declaration of Restrictions is intended to mean any piece or parcel of land on which, in accordance with the provisions hereof, the owner shall have the right to erect a single building or a single block of buildings. A plot may consist of a single lot or of more or less than a single lot.

5. The word "yard" as used in this Declaration of Restrictions is intended to mean an open space at grade between a building and the adjoining plot lines, unoccupied and unobstructed by any portion of a structure from the ground upward, except as otherwise provided herein.

7. Scholz shall have the right to construe and interpret these restrictions, and its construction or interpretation in good faith shall be final and binding as to all persons and property benefited or bound by such restrictions.

All the restrictions herein contained shall be construed together, but if it shall be held that any restriction or any part of any restriction is invalid or unenforceable, no other restriction or restrictions, nor any part thereof, shall be thereby affected or impaired.

8. No owner of any lot or plot in the Plat shall subdivide the same or convey less than the whole of any lot or plot without first obtaining the written consent of Scholz, its successors or assigns.

9. All restrictions, covenants, conditions, agreements and other provisions herein contained shall be deemed subject to and subordinate to all mortgages or deeds of trust in the nature of a mortgage now or hereafter executed, encumbering any of the real property herein described, and none of said restrictions, covenants, conditions, agreements or other provisions shall supersede or in any way reduce the security or affect the validity of any such mortgage or deed of trust in the nature of a mortgage; provided, however, that if any portion of said property is acquired in lieu of foreclosure, or is sold under foreclosure of any mortgage, or under the provisions of any deed of trust in the nature of a mortgage, or under any judicial sale, any purchaser at such sale, his or its heirs, successors or assigns, shall hold any and all property so purchased or acquired subject to all of the restrictions, covenants, conditions, agreements and other provisions of this Declaration.

10. No restrictions imposed hereby shall be abrogated or waived by any failure to enforce the provisions hereof, no matter how many violations or breaches may occur.

11. Scholz hereby expressly reserves the right at any time to annul, waive, change or modify any of the restrictions, conditions, covenants, easements and agreements herein contained, as to any part of said plat then owned by the company, provided that the company first obtains the consent of the owners of a majority of all the plots in said plat.

ARTICLE II
Approval of Plans

1. No building or any addition thereto or any alteration thereof, including repainting, shall be erected, reconstructed, placed or suffered to remain upon said premises unless or until the size, location, type, style of architecture, use, the materials for the construction thereof and the color scheme therefor, the grading plan of the plot, including the grade elevations of said buildings, the plot plan showing the proposed location of said buildings upon said plot, and the plans, specifications and details of said buildings shall have been approved in writing by Scholz, its successors or assigns, and a true copy of said plans, specifications and details shall have been lodged permanently with Scholz. No dwelling except such as conforms to said plans, specifications and details shall be erected, reconstructed, placed or suffered to remain upon said premises. Scholz shall have the right to refuse to approve any such plans, specifications or grading plans which are not suitable or desirable, in its opinion, for aesthetic or other reasons; and in so passing upon such plans, specifications and grading plans it shall have the right to take into consideration the suitability of the proposed building or other structure and of the materials of which it is to be built to the site upon which it is proposed to erect the same, the harmony thereof with the surroundings, and the effect of the building, as planned, on the outlook from the adjacent or neighboring property.

2. No garage or any addition thereto or alteration thereof shall be erected, reconstructed, placed or suffered to remain upon a plot except for the exclusive use of the family occupying the dwelling on said plot and the servants of such family. No garage or any addition thereto or alteration thereof shall be erected, reconstructed, placed or suffered to remain upon a plot unless such garage is made an integral part of said dwelling, and unless the size, location, type, style of architecture, coat, use, the materials of construction thereof, the color scheme thereof, the grade elevation thereof, and the plans, specifications and details of said garage, including the driveway approach, and garage entrance shall have been first approved in writing by Scholz, and a true copy of said plans, specifications and details of said garage shall have been lodged permanently with Scholz. Such garage, being an integral part of said dwelling, shall be subject to all of the covenants, rights, terms, reservations, limitations, agreements and restrictions at any point herein made applicable to said dwelling.

3. No driveway shall be located, relocated or suffered to remain upon any plot unless the location and the specifications for the construction thereof are approved by Scholz in writing at the time of the approval of the plans and specifications for the dwelling to be placed upon the plot.

4. Scholz reserves the sole and exclusive right to establish grades and slopes of the plots, and to fix the grade at which any dwelling shall hereafter be erected or placed thereon, so that the same may conform to a general plan for the development and use of Plat 1.

5. In all instances where plans and specifications are required to be submitted to and are approved by Scholz, if, subsequent to receiving such approval, there shall be any variance from the approved plans and specifications in the actual construction or location of the approved improvement, such variance shall be deemed a violation of these restrictions.

ARTICLE III

Use of Land

1. All said plots shall be used and occupied solely and exclusively for private residence purposes by a single family, including their family servants, and no other than one single family, private residence purpose building, shall be erected, reconstructed, placed or suffered to remain thereon. 2. No portion of the within-described premises nearer to any street than the building setback line or lines shown upon the plat of said subdivision shall be used for any purpose other than that of a lawn. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed as preventing the use of such portion of said premises for walks (and drives if otherwise permitted), the planting of trees or shrubbery, the growing of flowers or ornamental plants, or statuary, fountains and similar ornamentations, for the purpose of beautifying said premises, and the maintaining of the brick structures on Lots 4 and 10 in Plat 1 constructed as an entranceway to said Plat 1; but no vegetables, so-called, nor grains of the ordinary garden or field variety shall be grown upon such portion thereof; and no weeds, underbrush, or other unsightly growths, shall be permitted to grow or remain anywhere upon said premises, and no unsightly objects shall be allowed to be placed or suffered to remain anywhere on any lot. any part of said premises except in the rear yards, and then only on portable laundry be stored in underground containers or stored and maintained in containers entirely

1. No building or any part thereof, including porches, verandas, porte cochere and other similar projections from said building, shall be erected, reconstructed, placed or suffered to remain upon a plot nearer the front or street line or lines than the building setback line or lines shown on the plat of Plat 1, nor nearer to any side line or rear line of the plot upon which the building is located than shall be determined by Scholz, such determination to be made in writing at the time of the approval of the plans and specifications for said building.

3. No owner of any of the lots or plots shown on Plat 1 shall have the right to reserve or grant any easements or rights-of-way upon or over any of the lots or plots in said Plat 1 without the written consent of Scholz.

ARTICLE VI
Right to Enforce

The provisions herein contained shall run with and bind the land, and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by Scholz and/or the owner of any lot included in said Plat 1, and the failure of Scholz or any lot owner, however long continued, to object to any violation or to enforce any restrictions, conditions, covenants or agreements herein contained, shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter as to the same breach, or as to one occurring prior or subsequent thereto.
Scholz reserves and is hereby granted the right in case of any violation or breach of any of the restrictions, rights, reservations, limitations, agreements, covenants and conditions herein contained, to enter the property, upon or as to which such violation or breach exists, and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the owner thereof, any erection, thing or condition that may exist thereon contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof as interpreted by Scholz, and Scholz shall not, by reason thereof, be deemed guilty of any manner of trespass for such entry, abatement or removal.

The said restriction changes shall become effective from and after the time an instrument in writing, executed by a majority of the record owners of plots in said Plat 1 with the formalities then required by the State of Ohio for the execution of deeds setting forth the changes so agreed upon, is filed for record with the Lucas County, Ohio Recorder.

ARTICLE VIII

Right to Assign

Such assignments or relinquishments will become effective from and after the time a written instrument, signed by Scholz or by its successors and assigns evidencing the fact of such assignment or relinquishment, is filed for record with the Lucas County, Ohio Recorder. Any assignment of its rights and powers reserved to Scholz in this Declaration of Restrictions shall confer upon the assignee the same rights and powers, and the assignee shall be subject to the same obligations and duties as are herein reserved to and imposed upon Scholz, and Scholz shall thereupon be released from any further rights
