16. These covenants shall run with the land, and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them for a period of twenty-five (25) years from the date these covenants are recorded, after which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years, unless an instrument signed by a majority of the then owners of the lots has been recorded agreeing to change said covenants in whole or in part provided, however, that until the entire filing has been sold, no change may be recorded unless done so by the declarant.

17. Enforcement shall be by proceedings at law or in equity against any person violating or attempting to violate any covenant, either to restrain violations or to enforce compliance with these covenants. Failure by the declarant or by any owner to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter. Nor shall the declarant be responsible for the enforcement of any of the covenants other than architectural control after the lots are sold.

18. Invalidation of any one of these covenants by judgment or court order shall in no way effect any of the other provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.
